- A valid Police Vulnerable Sector Check (PVSC)
- B.A. or B.Sc. from a recognized University
- A passion for working with children and encouraging their growth and independence
- Strengths in organizational skills, communication skills, parent education and leadership
- A collaborative spirit – you will work alongside a team of UE teachers
- Confidence, professionalism, responsibility, patience
- Love of the outdoors an asset
- Confident in all Google platforms as well as Zoom
- Minimum 3 years teaching experience (preferred)

Responsibilities

- Maintaining a high-quality environment, assessing, observing and caring for the individual needs of every child
- Educating children in accordance to the designated curriculum model for their age group
- Maintaining open and honest lines of communication between parents and team members and always exemplifying professionalism
- Maintain lesson plans, record keeping, report cards, anecdotes and parent conferences where required
- Use a variety of relevant resources and technology to supplement the lesson plans in a meaningful way
- Maintain a positive learning environment using age-appropriate and effective classroom management techniques
- Participate in school-wide and program level events
